

Biography The LOO

The LOO is a killer rock 'n' roll band from Rotterdam, The Netherlands. They produce unadulterated rock 'n' roll similar to Velvet Revolver and Wolfmother. Influenced by legendary bands like Led Zeppelin, AC/DC and Guns n' Roses, the LOO stands for your daily healthy dose of sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll. Who thinks the LOO is named after your favourite leisure spot is wrong. It's simply the last name of frontman Robbie and his brother Junior.

Their last ep 'Rattlesnake Supercharger' was well received by public and press. Many energetic live shows followed during their tour at clubs like Het Paard van Troje, Tivoli de Helling, WaterFront, Speakers and Bibelot and festivals like Seuterrock, Greppelpop and De Grote Prijs van Zuid-Holland.

The band is known for its intense live performance often described as unreal by Dutch standards. Robbie the LOO is also called the Dutch Slash, only the top hat is missin'.

They just released their first full length album 'Clean Again', at a sold out Watt, Rotterdam. The kick start of the 'Clean Again' tour which will bring them all over Europe.

The LOO:

Robbie the LOO	Vocals, Lead Guitar
Junior the LOO	Bass
Johnny G. Smith	Rhythm Guitar
Bart Stixx	Drums

'Clean Again is a beautiful debut album, an introduction of great proportions. The music is pure; the songs are well arranged and also sound wise it's a beauty. A real recommendation.'

'Right from 'Clean Again?' they're rockin' and rollin' like no other. The guitar is right upfront in the mix and the vocals are definitely right for this kind of music. The LOO makes unadulterated rock 'n' roll like AC/DC, The Cult and Guns 'n' Roses and they generally don't hold back.'
